

Processes

This area is all about processes used in the KIELER project. While this area of the Wiki documents processes, the Development section documents the application of the processes.